

NEW JERSEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

MEN'S INDOOR TRACK & FIELD ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

WEEK ENDING 2/3/19

TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

CAMERON DOBBINS • Rutgers-Camden
Senior • Williamstown, NJ/Williamstown

Dobbins earns his second consecutive NJAC Indoor Track Athlete of the Week honor after several strong performances at the Frank Colden Invitational at Ursinus College. He finished first in all three events he competed in, with ECAC qualifiers each time. He was the top 60 meter dash runner with a 6.97 in the preliminaries, before capturing the event win with a 6.94 in the finals. That time is tied for second-fastest in the NJAC this season and ranks tied for 16th nationally. He won the 200 meters with a time of 22.00, which converted to a 21.62 to rank fourth nationally. Dobbins also anchored the 4x2 relay to a winning time of 1:33.91, which is the second-fastest 4x2 by an NJAC squad this season.

FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

EARNEST DANIEL • Rowan University
Sophomore • Woolwich, NJ/Kingsway Regional

Daniel collects his second NJAC Indoor Field Athlete of the Week honor after leading the Rowan jumpers at the Bomber Invitational at Ithaca College. He competed in both the high jump and triple jump, posting a winning high jump mark of 1.93 meters. He currently owns the best high jump in the conference this year. He also posted a triple jump of 13.39 meters to place seventh out of 21 in the event. Daniel currently owns the third-farthest triple jump in the NJAC this season.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

JOHN OWENS • Rowan University
Freshman • Newnan, GA/West Windsor-Plainsboro North (NJ)

Owens picks up his fourth NJAC Rookie of the Week honor after a winning long jump at the Bomber Invitational at Ithaca College. He jumped 6.97 meters to top the field of 29 competitors, and that leap ranks as the third-farthest in the NJAC and 23rd nationally so far this season. He also ran a leg of the 4x4 relay, helping the squad to a time of 3:37.40 which is the fastest 4x4 by an NJAC squad this year.
