

GREAT NORTHEAST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

217 Lincoln Street
Winthrop, MA 02152

CONTACT: Michael Ghika
Asst. Commissioner for Media Relations

E-MAIL: mghika@thegnac.com

PHONE: (781) 507-3899

GNAC Men's Tennis

First Team Singles

Alex Wright, Colby-Sawyer (Sr. - Cornwall, England)
Henry Siercke , ENC, Jr. (Hamburg, Germany)
Julius Opaschowski, ENC (So. - Hamburg, Germany)
Diego Rodriguez, ENC (Fr. - Barquisimeto, Venezuela)
Alex Rohana, JWU (Jr. - Providence, R.I.)
Michael Abelev, Ramapo (Sr. - Fair Lawn, N.J.)

First Team Doubles

Henry Siercke / Julius Opaschowski, Eastern Nazarene

Second Team Singles

Zak Levine, Albertus Magnus (Fr. - Hamden, Conn.)
Matthew Burke, Colby-Sawyer (Jr. - Milford, Conn.)
Julius Lowman, Colby-Sawyer (Fr. - Bavaria, Germany)
Mike White, Colby-Sawyer (Jr. - Woburn, Mass.)
Tim Schoengens , ENC (Fr. - Inden, Germany)

Franz Fonck, JWU

Second Team Doubles

Diego Rodriguez / Tim Schoengens , Eastern Nazarene

Player of the Year – Henry Siercke , Eastern Nazarene College

Rookie of the Year – Diego Rodriguez, Eastern Nazarene College

Coach of the Year – Barry Schoonmaker, Colby-Sawyer College

Institutional Sportsmanship Award – Colby-Sawyer College

All-Sportsmanship Team

Alex Proscino, Albertus Magnus
Alex Wright, Colby-Sawyer
Shaw Campbell, Eastern Nazarene College
Robert Michalofsky, JWU
Tim Santy, Norwich University
Alex Kogut, Ramapo
Owen Pelissier, Regis
Shariq Khan, Rutgers Camden
Sebastian Narath, Rutgers Newark
Mike DeFelice, Suffolk University

Founded in 1995, the Great Northeast Athletic Conference (GNAC) is an NCAA Division III association made up of 13 member institutions and over 3,000 student-athletes across the New England region. Each year, the GNAC sponsors and administers 20 championships, while balancing academic integrity, athletic opportunities and community involvement.