WILLIAM PATERSON'S ADELMAN & STOCKTON'S DiELMO NAMED NJAC WOMEN'S SOCCER OFFENSIVE & DEFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Pitman, NJ—William Paterson University senior forward Marisa Adelman (Branchburg, NJ/Somerville) and Stockton University junior back Dasey DiElmo (Little Egg Harbor, NJ/Pinelands Regional) have been named the New Jersey Athletic Conference Women's Soccer Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year respectively for the 2019 season. In total, 42 student-athletes earned all-conference recognition in NJAC women's soccer during the 2019 season. All selections were determined by a vote of the league's 10 head coaches and were based on conference-only statistics.

A four-time NJAC all-conference selection, Adelman claimed the third major NJAC award of her career after previously being named the NJAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year in 2018 and the NJAC Co-Rookie of the Year in 2016. She finished her senior NJAC season ranked tied for third in conference-only points (13), and fourth in conference-only points per game (1.44). A two-time NJAC Offensive Player of the Week in 2019, Adelman also finished second in both conference-only goals (6) and conference-only goals per game (0.67).

A three-time NJAC all-conference honoree, DiElmo claimed the second major NJAC award of her career after previously being named NJAC Co-Rookie of the Year in 2017. She anchored an Ospreys defense that finished conference play ranked second in both conference team goals allowed (5) and conference-only team goals against average (0.53). A Week 6 NJAC Offensive Player of the Week honoree, DiElmo also finished NJAC play ranked tied for 12th in conference-only goals (3).

The College of New Jersey's junior Kelly Carolan (Sparta, NJ/Sparta) was named the NJAC Midfielder of the Year. She finished NJAC play ranked tied for fifth in conference-only goals (4), and tied for sixth in conference-only goals per game (0.44). Carolan also finished tied for 13th in conference-only points (8), and tied for 17th in conference-only points per game (0.89).

TCNJ senior Nicole DiPasquale (Paramus, NJ/Paramus) was named the NJAC Goalkeeper of the Year for the second time in her career after previously claiming the same award in 2017. A Week 9 NJAC Defensive Player of the Week selection, DiPasquale did not surrender a goal in 723 minutes of conference play, as she led the league in both conference-only goals against average (0.00) and conference-only save percentage (1.000).

Montclair State University freshman forward Tori Rolls (Ocean City, NJ/Ocean City) was tapped as the NJAC Rookie of the Year. The only freshman named first-team all-conference in 2019, she led the league in both conference-only points (21) and conference-only goals (8). A two-time NJAC Rookie of the Week honoree, Rolls also finished NJAC play as the league-leader in both conference-only points per game (2.33) and conference-only goals per game (0.89).

Montclair State University head coach Patrick Naughter was selected as the NJAC Coach of the Year by his peers for the third time in his career after previously earning the same honor in both 2012 and 2013. So far in 2019, he has guided the Red Hawks to a 12-5-2 overall record and a NJAC regular season runner-up finish with a 7-1-1 mark in conference play. In 10 years at the helm of the MSU program, Naughter has guided the Red Hawks to an overall record of 137-40-28.
